

SPECIALIST WORKSHOPS

2017 Malheur Field Station

34848 SODHOUSE LANE PRINCETON OREGON 97721 (541) 493-2629

Connect with Malheur through these truly immersive and creative workshops.

They are custom-built with limited enrollment to fully enhance your educational experience.

Heighten your senses, learn to observe and listen, and deepen your knowledge of this inspirational landscape

Chose your own date

This opportunity works well if you wish to enroll with friends during a particular month-give us a call with your suggested date.

Join an Ongoing Session

If you are not limited to a specific time period and want to join any sessions already set- call us for details

Painting Malheur

Plein-air! Absorb the stunning land-scape of Malheur and it's tantalizing colors, shapes and sounds. This out-of-doors painting workshop will focus on field techniques & observational skills. Composition and color-mixing as options. Session ends with studio based critiques. Step away from your studio -take up the rewarding challenge of plein-air painting! Lyla Messick, Instructor. Enrollment 2-5.

©Messick

Music Malheur! Come explore the relationship between spectacular land-scapes and the classical music they inspire. We will listen, look and discuss. Serious music lovers, don't miss this unique fusion of Harney County and state-of-the-art sound technology!

A truly memorable learning experience. Duncan Evered, Instructor. Enrollment 2 - 4.

©Messick

WORKSHOP INFORMATION

Workshop cost: $285; to extend the course an extra day, add $95. Cost covers instruction and transportation during the course. Contact MFS for lodging/meal options (not included).

Workshops are built around an evening session and two full days in the field (instructor contact averages 25 hours). All Instructors have been living or studying in this location for decades.